

SPONSORSHIPS

DEADLINE: NOVEMBER 15, 2024

$500

"BUMPY" JOHNSON

KINGPIN OF THE HARLEM UNDERWORLD

Widely regarded as a Robin Hood-like figure, Bumpy championed the interests of the poor and disenfranchised. Despite his criminal exploits, Johnson was also known for his philanthropic efforts, using his wealth and influence to support various social causes and uplift his community.

- 2 Tickets
- Sponsor Name on Table Signs in Alphabetical Order
- Sponsor Name or Logo on Event Sponsor Board
- Listed in Program Book

$750

AL CAPONE

RUTHLESS AND CUNNING

Capone had an almost mythical reputation as a gangster. He outwitted and manipulated the law despite efforts to bring him to justice. Capone remained elusive from law enforcement and was only convicted on a minor charge of tax evasion.

- 4 Tickets
- Sponsor Name on Table Signs in Alphabetical Order
- Sponsor Name or Logo on Event Sponsor Board
- Listed in Program Book
- 4 Tags as a Sponsor on Social Media
- Introduction at Event

$1,000

"BUGSY" SIEGEL

LAS VEGAS KINGPIN

A key figure in the development of Las Vegas, Bugsy is often regarded as one of the most infamous mafia bosses of his time. A charismatic and ruthless leader, Siegel was involved in various criminal activities such as bootlegging, gambling, and contract killing. His flamboyant personality and lavish lifestyle made him a larger-than-life figure in the criminal underworld.

- 6 Tickets
- Sponsor Name on Table Signs in Alphabetical Order
- Sponsor Name or Logo on Event Sponsor Board
- $15 Gift Certificate to Whitner's Mercantile ACM Store
- Listed in Program Book
- Sponsor Name or Logo on Party with the Past Website Page
- 6 Tags as a Sponsor on Social Media
- Listed in News Release
- Introduction at Event

$2,500

"LUCKY" LUCIANO

MAFIA KINGPIN OF NEW YORK CITY

At the height of Prohibition, Lucky capitalized on the illegal alcohol trade, building a vast criminal empire that included bootlegging, gambling, and prostitution. Luciano's control over the New York City underworld was his legacy as a mafia kingpin that established the five crime families that would dominate the New York City mafia for decades to come.

- 8 Tickets with Logo on your table
- Sponsor Name on Table Signs in Alphabetical Order
- Sponsor Name or Logo on Event Sponsor Board
- $25 Gift Certificate to Whitner's Mercantile ACM Store
- Listed in Program Book
- Sponsor Name or Logo on Party with the Past Website Page
- 8 Tags as a Sponsor on Social Media
- Listed in News Release
- Introduction at Event
- One four-hour use of Museum Community Room during hours museum is open to the public
Must coordinate with museum for availability.

$5,000

MEYER LANSKY

THE MOB'S ACCOUNTANT AND THE BRAINS BEHIND THE OPERATION

A pivotal figure in the world of organized crime during the 1920s, Lansky was born in 1902 in Belarus and emigrated to the United States with his family. He quickly became involved in the criminal underworld and was renowned for his sharp business acumen and strategic mind, which earned him the nickname "The Brain" within mafia circles.

- 8 Tickets with Logo on your table
- Sponsor Name on Table Signs in Alphabetical Order
- Sponsor Name or Logo on Event Sponsor Board
- $50 Gift Certificate to Whitner's Mercantile ACM Store

- Listed in Program Book
- Sponsor Name or Logo on Party with the Past Website Page
- Sponsor Name or Logo on Home Page of Website as a History Partner
- One Moonshine Gift Bag
- 16 Tags as a Sponsor on Social Media
- Listed in News Release
- Introduction at Event
- $500 discount on Museum Gallery Rental for four hours or one two-hour use of Museum Gallery during the hours of 5 – 7 PM. Must coordinate with museum for availability. Cannot be used during the month of December.